Fran Millar Wins the Endorsement of Georgia's Small Businesses

DUNWOODY, Ga., Sept. 28, 2010 – The National Federation of Independent Business, Georgia's leading small business association, has endorsed Fran Millar in the 40th District Senate race.

The endorsement was made by NFIB/Georgia SAFE (Save America's Free Enterprise) Trust, which is comprised exclusively of NFIB members. The general election will be Tuesday, Nov. 2.

"Our members support the candidates who support small business, and as a member of the Georgia House, Fran Millar did that," said David Raynor, state director of NFIB/Georgia. "He earned a 100 percent NFIB voting record every year since 2005, and we believe he will continue to support small businesses as a member of the state Senate.

Millar said, "I appreciate NFIB's endorsement. Small business is the cornerstone of Georgia's economy. If you want to help create jobs and lead us out of this recession, you have to start by supporting small businesses."

Small business owners and their employees vote in high numbers and are known for actively recruiting friends, family members and acquaintances to go to the polls. NFIB has pledged it will activate its grassroots network on behalf of these candidates. NFIB's political support is based on the candidates' positions and records on small business issues.

*NFIB is the nation's leading small business association, with offices in Washington, D.C. and all 50 state capitals. Founded in 1943 as a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization, NFIB gives small- and independent-business owners a voice in shaping the public policy issues that affect their business. NFIB's powerful network of grassroots activists sends its views directly to state and federal lawmakers through our unique member-only ballot, thus playing a critical role in supporting America's free enterprise system. NFIB's mission is to promote and protect the right of our members to own, operate and grow their businesses.
